HE SPEAKS OUT IN MEETING

He Commends Legality, Social Purity and Clean and Honest Life—He Shows the Absolute Irresponsibility of the Crisis and Baked That Boasted Front Office Force—Lies are Not Good Citizens.

I am a citizen of East Liverpool and have been for many years. I love this city, and will do everything in my power, in common with other good citizens, for its advancement. I have been following, very closely and attentively, the present fight of law and order, social purity and clean life. I was present at the now famous speech made at the First Presbyterian church by the representative of law and order, and I can truthfully say that he said nothing out of the way, and that there would have been no disturbance over the speech, had not the very vilest and foulest misrepresentations been made over it in the columns of the Crisis, a paper notorious for misrepresentation and untruth, and which has never been known to advocate any good or worthy cause. I was present at that awful "indignation" meeting at the rink, and I noted the men who were in charge of the same, and who made arrangements for the rink, band and other features connected therewith, and their very presence and actions convinced me that the meeting was gotten up by the worst class of men in East Liverpool, backed by saloonists, brewers and men who are constantly defying and attempting to dodge the law. There were some few good men there, drawn thither by curiosity, but the great mass consisted of a very sorry crowd. A class of people that an honest and true citizen would avoid in every possible manner. I am a working man, and have been all my life, and I respect and admire every honest and virtuous girl engaged in the potteries of East Liverpool, and I have the very best of reasons for knowing that the bad girls are the exception and not the rule. But I also know that there are very bad men in the potteries, and that one of them was at the rink meeting the other night, and while not one of the platform speakers, yet he made himself very conspicuous in defense of what he calls the "villified and slandered pottery girls," and I know and will prove that he is doing everything in his power to drag down and destroy the character of the girls employed there. I also know that, some 17 or 18 years ago, there was an awful condition of affairs in some of our potteries, vile women being on the rolls for vile purposes, under vile men in control of departments, unknown to the manufacturers or owners of the potteries, and when the expose came, as God has ordained it always shall, there were numerous heads cut off and blackguards discharged. And I have the very best of reasons for knowing that this same bad work is being enacted, on a limited scale, in our potteries at the present time, and one of the men engaged in the nefarious work is shaking in his shoes, daily expecting exposure, and I should not be surprised to know of his leaving the city. He is bitter against Detective Huckle, for he knows that the detective, in company with citizens of this city, are upon his trail.

By the way, it is not Detective Huckle these lawbreakers are after. They are not after anyone who advocates the enforcement of social purity, the Sunday laws, illegal liquor selling and kindred vices, such as selling to minors, habitual drunkards and after legal hours. It is a notorious fact, which cannot be successfully refuted or denied, that every unclean man and woman in East Liverpool, every illegal liquor seller, every man who is keeping a mistress in this city, at hotels or elsewhere, is viciously angry at Huckle and the cause he represents. Do you wonder at it, men of clean lives and pure hearts? These vile characters fear neither God nor man, as long as they can keep their dark secrets. But they do fear the light of truth and investigation. They do dread, with an awful dread, exposure and punishment. And Huckle, backed by good men and good women, represents law and order, truth, virtue, honor, honesty and clean life. "Turn on the light," is the order of the day. God is behind and around and all about the present movement for clean life and social purity, and puny man, even when backed by the power of satan, must go to the wall.

Look at the statements made in the Crisis for the past few days and note the utter absurdities contained therein. Read back a few days and find how, in that irresponsible sheet, they made fun of the conversion of Ann Houser, nee Mrs. Wilson. Read, in a later issue, the quotations from Scripture, from the book of holy writ, a book which evidently is not made much use of at Crisis headquarters, as per the knowledge of men who are acquainted with the life history of its publisher. Read later on, in last night's issue, and you will find that Ann Houser, as per the judgment of the front office force, has been gloriously converted, is an honest and sincere woman and has but one dread—that of becoming an infidel, and all on account of that villain, William G. Huckle. If poor Mrs. Houser should become an out and out infidel, she could find sympathizers and comforters in the lower part of this city, on the principle that "birds of a feather flock together." But Ann Houser has gone into the affidavit business in full force. And why? Ask a policeman much interested, and a magistrate of this city who accompanied him, and who visited Ann's house several days ago and were closeted with her for hours, and who then and there, as per good judgment and common sense, inaugurated an onslaught and a conspiracy against legality, decency and purity, as represented by the ministers of the gospel of East Liverpool, backed by a multitude of voters, who will make their presence felt and their power known at the coming municipal primaries and elections. The handwriting is on the wall. Turn on the light. Vile and evil men, men of false and untrue lives, no matter whether they be private citizens or public officials, Democrats, Republicans, Prohibitionists, Populists or Coxevites, will do well to take warning and reform from their evil ways, as the axe is suspended in midair and will surely fall. Let Ann Houser pile affidavits upon affidavits, mountain high; the greater the mass, the greater the ruin and disaster when the mountain falls upon those who back her up and associate with her in her nefarious and lying work. If she were a truly converted woman, she would tell the truth, and she knows that the truth is that Huckle has been one of her best friends, and she has so said, within a very few days, to witnesses whose veracity will not be questioned when before the proper tribunal. Moral suasion has been tried with this woman. Legal suasion is now on the list. I am a believer in Christianity, and I would give any man or woman an opportunity to rise from the gutter and from the slime and sin of a depraved life. Ave, in conformity with the command of the Master, I would give them many opportunities, and do all in my power, financially and otherwise, to help them. But when a man or woman professes conversion, or professes a desire to do right, and the next moment curses and swears and abuses those who are their best friends, and does everything possible to aid and assist vile men and vile women, then there is just cause for telling them that their actions speak louder than words, and that they need a conversion which will compel them to tell the truth and endeavor to do right.

When the Crisis boasts of a clean and conscientious front office force, whom do they embrace and what do they mean? Has the force any regard or respect for the truth? It is not a fact that I can bring mechanics, laborers, professional and business men, ministers of the gospel and good citizens in general, men whose word will be taken in preference to the Crisis front office force, who will say, and make affidavit to the saying, if necessary, that the account of the meeting in the Presbyterian church was not only misleading and untrue, but infinitely worse than a plain, unvarnished falsehood, as the account of the meeting was so distorted, twisted and arranged, as to lead men and women to believe that Detective William G. Huckle had insulted and villified every person in the city. If this is not a case of plain lying on the part of the Crisis, then no liar ever existed. Rev. R. B. Whitehead, in a spirit of fair play, went to the Crisis office and talked to the front office force, and so foully did they misquote and distort the actual language and words of Reverend Whitehead, that he simply pronounced them infamous, and will in future give them no information of any character, as they are not honorable, honest or truthful. Again, we have it from reliable authority that a member of the front office force was discharged from a position he formerly occupied on account of breaking his solemnly pledged word of honor, which should have been, and would have been to any man of honor, as sacred as his oath. Again, is it not on record at the mayor's office that a party prominently connected with the Crisis has not the greatest regard in the world for law and order, and is it not a fact that he has been found guilty of transgressing the law by being in an infamous saloon after hours, and was he not fined for his action. Is it not a fact that the Crisis has never advocated anything pure or good in all its history, and is it not the champion of evil doers and lawbreakers. When Officers Wyman and Supplee were on the police force (and, by the way, no better or truer officers ever wore uniform or carried a mace), did not this same Crisis constantly malign and blackguard them and assail them again and again, because they did their full duty and attempted to gather information against and punish saloon keepers who were constantly breaking the law and selling liquor illegally. Further, are there not numerous clean lived and honest Democrats in East Liverpool who will not allow the Crisis to cross their threshold, on account of the stand it takes against legality and pure living, and who pronounce it an unfit paper to be brought into the family? I do not believe in abusing any man or any paper, or any body of men engaged on a paper; but when any paper represents evil and evil character, and stands up for lawbreakers, it is high time the citizens of East Liverpool, good citizens, should be arrayed against it, irrespective of party. What this city sadly needs is a clean Democratic daily paper, and there are hundreds of Democratic voters who emphasize and support this assertion, and are even now talking of taking stock in the establishment of such a journal in this city.

Let me add a few words that came to me today, backed by six staunch, clean lived, reputable citizens, who yesterday visited Ann Houser's home. They show just what her words or affidavits are worth:

"About 500 men have been up to see me within the past few days respecting affidavits and sworn statements, and I think that among this number was about 100 lawyers. I wish they would stay away from me. I can hardly tell what I have signed."

SOCIAL PURITY.

MAYOR GILBERT.

The Chief Magistrate of the City Speaks Words of Wisdom.

The chief magistrate of East Liverpool, Mayor A. V. Gilbert, in a conversation with the manager of the News Review, held in the front office this morning, said that the men who are living clean and legal lives, have no cause of fear from William G. Huckle or any other man or body of men. He states that only those who fear the law, or dread exposure of work which will not stand the light of day, should have any objection to a law or order committee, or social purity committee. He stands out boldly and demands any investigation into his official work or life, or his private life, while he does not like hints and insinuations from anyone. If proof is brought him that any officer on his force has been doing bad work, work not in conformity with the oath of said officer, then that officer shall be brought up standing, and compelled to bear the punishment his deeds demand. No attention will be paid to mere hints or assertions, but when proof, good and strong, is placed before him, by the law and order committee, or any good citizen or citizens, it shall receive full and careful consideration. The mayor of East Liverpool is heart and soul in favor of the enforcement of existing laws and in favor of clean life, in private and in public. Turn on the light.

HOW'S THIS.

A Reliable Young Potter Tells His Little Story.

A fine looking young pottery workman of this city called at the News Review office this morning, and, in the presence of witnesses, said: "You can tell Detective Huckle that he is on the right track, and that I am with him in his desire to have pottery girls and honest girls in our potteries protected from the insults and vile actions of bosses of departments. Only yesterday, a young lady friend of mine, a good, true and honest girl, was insulted in word and action in one of our potteries, by the boss of a department, who calls himself a gentleman and who is a married man. The insult was answered by a direct slap in the face from the hand of my lady friend, and the insulter may count himself in good luck if sterner punishment does not follow his cowardly and unworthy action."

His Words Ring Like True Metal—Follow Him Here.

"I am heart and soul with the ministers of the Gospel in the matter of enforcing the law in this city of East Liverpool. I am against Sunday desecration, illegal liquor selling and vice of every kind. I am with the ministers of East Liverpool in every movement of right and true reform. I am with them in the proper prosecution of the social purity movements. Mistakes have been made, in my estimation, in this present movement; but good and true men are liable to mistakes, and they should be allowed to rectify them and place themselves right. I believe the movement for social purity and the enforcement of law is now in good and wise hands, and that the work will be carried on in the future in a manner which will reflect credit upon the leaders and the cause, and strike terror to the hearts of evil doers."

FOOTBALL.

The Eclipse Lose Their First Game to Bethany.

The first game of Rugby football ever played in this city took place on the West End grounds yesterday afternoon, and resulted in defeat for the home eleven by a score of 46 to 0. To a person not acquainted with the game this score will look rather large, but the manager and players are well pleased with the result. The Bethany boys are all perfect gentlemen and made many friends by their fair play. The features of the game were the playing of D. McLane, Snediker and R. Hall for the home team, and that of A. W. Place for Bethany. Judging by the crowd yesterday, the sport has taken a firm hold of East Liverpool people and insures its success.

The Bethany team will be here again on the 30th of this month, and arrangements are being made to bring the Acmes, a strong club of Steubenville, here on Saturday of this week. If it is possible, the Allegheny team will be secured for a game on Thanksgiving day.

The East Liverpool Rovers, the association football team organized here, met last night and elected the following officers: Joseph Hume, manager; William Elder, captain; William Wallbank, vice captain; Charles Harrison, secretary; George Eardley, treasurer. The team has made arrangements for two games, the first one to be played with the Youngstown team to be played here on the 30th of this month, and the second game will be played with the famous P. A. C. team of Pittsburgh, although the date for the contest has yet been fixed.

WEARY OF FOREIGN WARE.

Merchants Have Difficulty In Matching Up.

Liverpool travelers coming in off the road are telling of their experiences with crockery dealers, and some have found men who are sick and tired of dealing with the importers. One gentleman told a reporter that he recently talked to a man in Kentucky who last year bought foreign ware because it was cheaper than the American product. His order was delayed for months, and before he got it he had bought Liverpool ware to hold his trade. Then he had great difficulty in matching up, and some of the last order he had given he was waiting on at the time. He declared he had had enough of the importers and their products.

HELPED HIMSELF.

A Wandering Wittle Had To Have Cabbage.

A lady who does not live a thousand miles from city hall lost a head of cabbage last night because a tramp was partial to that vegetable. The stranger asked for supper at the door, and the lady, who boasts that she never turned away anyone empty handed, was preparing him some cold victuals when he looked through the open door and spied a large head of cabbage on the kitchen table. He at once offered to do without the lunch if she would give him the cabbage, stating that he never liked anything as well as raw cabbage, and he got it.

Eight Initiated.

Calhoun lodge, number 41, of National association of stationary engineers, met last night and initiated eight new members into the mysteries of the order. Ten applications for membership were received and acted upon. The order bids fair to meet with great success, judging from the increased membership. The result is highly encouraging to the promulgators of the movement.

Prosecuting Attorney Here.

Prosecuting Attorney Speaker was at the Thompson House today, and was in conference with Reverend Whitehead and Detective Huckle on business connected with law and order of this city, and he is also gathering evidence to be used in the case of the commissioners versus the street railway tomorrow at Lisbon.

HEAVY DAMAGE SUITS

Charles McKenna Asks the Street Railway for $25,000.

THE ACCIDENT OCCURRED IN 1891

The Case is Attracting Much Attention in Lisbon, East Liverpool and the Surrounding Country—Prominent Legal Talent Will be Arrayed Against Each Other—P. M. Smith Wants $2,000.

The $25,000 damage suit of Charles McKenna, of East Liverpool, against the East Liverpool and Wellsville Street Railway company, which has been pending, was put on trial this morning, with F. E. Grosshans and P. M. Smith for the prosecution, and Attorneys Taylor and Clark, of Lisbon, Judge Blandin, of Cleveland, and Attorney H. R. Hill, of East Liverpool, for the defense.

Charles McKenna, the prosecuting witness, told the story of the accident as follows: "I was on the Horn switch on the 5th of November, 1891." He here showed the injured foot to the jury. "I am unable to walk right as yet, and am lamed for life. I worked at the glass house in East Liverpool and live near the trestle. About 4 o'clock in the afternoon of Nov. 5, 1891, I was crossing the trestle, and when not about 25 or 30 feet upon the same, the accident occurred. It was the first time I had ever been upon the trestle; as it had been built but a short time, the cars were not running. When I was about 35 feet from the west end, I saw a sort of a truck car approaching, at a rapid rate of speed, and when about eight or 10 feet from me, it struck a plank that was lying on the side of the track and left the track. I cannot say whether anyone was on the car or not. When the car struck the plank, upon leaving the track, the plank struck me and knocked me quite a distance."

George Stanley—I live in East Liverpool; am employed by the street railway company. In November of 1891, at the time of this accident, we were constructing the road toward Wellsville. I was operating this car, carrying rails to be used in the construction of the trestle; the car was without brake and was entirely uncontrollable, and had once before jumped the track at the same point, which was rough and unfinished. There were eight employes with me on the car when it jumped the track. I saw the McKenna boy, and saw him fall backward on the right hand side.

John A. George—I am city engineer of East Liverpool and made the survey for the street railway company at the constructing of the road.

John McBane—I reside at East Liverpool. My residence is close to the trestle, and I saw the same when it was being built, and my understanding then was that it was to be used as a public highway. I have used it frequently.

The case of Attorney P. M. Smith, for $2,000 damages, against the East Liverpool and Wellsville street railway company, was called in court yesterday afternoon and this morning, and will be concluded after the hearing of the McKenna damage suit, which was called, owing to the presence of the witnesses. The action of P. M. Smith was brought to receive damages for injuries done by the street railway company in 1891, when constructing their road, to a 120 acre tract of land in Liverpool township, said 120 acre tract being the property of P. M. Smith. The railway was built by the defendants, it is claimed, without the permission or authority of the plaintiff, and that when the road was constructed, the land was left in such a condition as to cause it to crumble and wash away. A. G. Smith and W. G. Wells are prosecuting the case, while R. W. Taylor, Judge Blandin and Colonel Hill represent the street railway company. Seventh assignment: Monday, Nov. 25—Ohio versus John S. Conkle, two cases.

Tuesday, Nov. 26—Ohio versus James D. Hickey; Ohio versus Oliver Cross; Ohio versus Frank Earle.

Nov. 27—Ohio versus Homer Crawford; Ohio versus Lewis Smith; Ohio versus Isaac Levi.

MAKING PROGRESS.

Gymnasium Classes of the Y. M. C. A. are Improving.

Owing to circumstances which he could not control, Mr. Morris, physical director of the Young Men's Christian association, had to dispense with several classes last week, but matters have taken on a different aspect since that time, and the work will be pushed with more vigor than ever. The classes have made rapid progress during the past few months and are meeting with success in the work. The plan of a thorough gymnasium course has made the association boys enthusiastic.

When Officers Wyman and Supplee were on the police force (and, by the way, no better or truer officers ever wore uniform or carried a mace), did not this same Crisis constantly malign and blackguard them and assail them again and again, because they did their full duty and attempted to gather information against and punish saloon keepers who were constantly breaking the law and selling liquor illegally. Further, are there not numerous clean lived and honest Democrats in East Liverpool who will not allow the Crisis to cross their threshold, on account of the stand it takes against legality and pure living, and who pronounce it an unfit paper to be brought into the family? I do not believe in abusing any man or any paper, or any body of men engaged on a paper; but when any paper represents evil and evil character, and stands up for lawbreakers, it is high time the citizens of East Liverpool, good citizens, should be arrayed against it, irrespective of party. What this city sadly needs is a clean Democratic daily paper, and there are hundreds of Democratic voters who emphasize and support this assertion, and are even now talking of taking stock in the establishment of such a journal in this city.

Let me add a few words that came to me today, backed by six staunch, clean lived, reputable citizens, who yesterday visited Ann Houser's home. They show just what her words or affidavits are worth:

"About 500 men have been up to see me within the past few days respecting affidavits and sworn statements, and I think that among this number was about 100 lawyers. I wish they would stay away from me. I can hardly tell what I have signed."

SOCIAL PURITY.

MAYOR GILBERT.

The Chief Magistrate of the City Speaks Words of Wisdom.

The chief magistrate of East Liverpool, Mayor A. V. Gilbert, in a conversation with the manager of the NEWS REVIEW, held in the front office this morning, said that the men who are living clean and legal lives, have no cause of fear from William G. Huckle or any other man or body of men. He states that only those who fear the law, or dread exposure of work which will not stand the light of day, should have any objection to a law or order committee, or social purity committee. He stands out boldly and demands any investigation into his official work or life, or his private life, while he does not like hints and insinuations from anyone. If proof is brought him that any officer on his force has been doing bad work, work not in conformity with the oath of said officer, then that officer shall be brought up standing, and compelled to bear the punishment his deeds demand. No attention will be paid to mere hints or assertions, but when proof, good and strong, is placed before him, by the law and order committee, or any good citizen or citizens, it shall receive full and careful consideration. The mayor of East Liverpool is heart and soul in favor of the enforcement of existing laws and in favor of clean life, in private and in public. Turn on the light.

HOW'S THIS.

A Reliable Young Potter Tells His Little Story.

A fine looking young pottery workman of this city called at the NEWS REVIEW office this morning, and, in the presence of witnesses, said: "You can tell Detective Huckle that he is on the right track, and that I am with him in his desire to have pottery girls and honest girls in our potteries protected from the insults and vile actions of bosses of departments. Only yesterday, a young lady friend of mine, a good, true and honest girl, was insulted in word and action in one of our potteries, by the boss of a department, who calls himself a gentleman and who is a married man. The insult was answered by a direct slap in the face from the hand of my lady friend, and the insulter may count himself in good luck if sterner punishment does not follow his cowardly and unworthy action."

RECTOR O'MEARA SPEAKS.

His Words Ring Like True Metal—Follow Him Here.

"I am heart and soul with the ministers of the Gospel in the matter of enforcing the law in this city of East Liverpool. I am against Sunday desecration, illegal liquor selling and vice of every kind. I am with the ministers of East Liverpool in every movement of right and true reform. I am with them in the proper prosecution of the social purity movements. Mistakes have been made, in my estimation, in this present movement; but good and true men are liable to mistakes, and they should be allowed to rectify them and place themselves right. I believe the movement for social purity and the enforcement of law is now in good and wise hands, and that the work will be carried on in the future in a manner which will reflect credit upon the leaders and the cause, and strike terror to the hearts of evil doers."

FOOTBALL.

The Eclipse Lose Their First Game to Bethany.

The first game of Rugby football ever played in this city took place on the West End grounds yesterday afternoon, and resulted in defeat for the home eleven by a score of 46 to 0. To a person not acquainted with the game this score will look rather large, but the manager and players are well pleased with the result. The Bethany boys are all perfect gentlemen and made many friends by their fair play. The features of the game were the playing of D. McLane, Snediker and R. Hall for the home team, and that of A. W. Place for Bethany. Judging by the crowd yesterday, the sport has taken a firm hold of East Liverpool people and insures its success.

The Bethany team will be here again on the 30th of this month, and arrangements are being made to bring the Acmes, a strong club of Steubenville, here on Saturday of this week. If it is possible, the Allegheny team will be secured for a game on Thanksgiving day.

The East Liverpool Rovers, the association football team organized here, met last night and elected the following officers: Joseph Hume, manager; William Elder, captain; William Wallbank, vice captain; Charles Harrison, secretary; George Eardley, treasurer. The team has made arrangements for two games, the first one to be played with the Youngstown team to be played here on the 30th of this month, and the second game will be played with the famous P. A. C. team of Pittsburgh, although the date for the contest has yet been fixed.

WEARY OF FOREIGN WARE.

Merchants Have Difficulty In Matching Up.

Liverpool travelers coming in off the road are telling of their experiences with crockery dealers, and some have found men who are sick and tired of dealing with the importers. One gentleman told a reporter that he recently talked to a man in Kentucky who last year bought foreign ware because it was cheaper than the American product. His order was delayed for months, and before he got it he had bought Liverpool ware to hold his trade. Then he had great difficulty in matching up, and some of the last order he had given he was waiting on at the time. He declared he had had enough of the importers and their products.

HELPED HIMSELF.

A Wandering Willie Had To Have Cabbage.

A lady who does not live a thousand miles from city hall lost a head of cabbage last night because a tramp was partial to that vegetable. The stranger asked for supper at the door, and the lady, who boasts that she never turned away anyone empty handed, was preparing him some cold victuals when he looked through the open door and spied a large head of cabbage on the kitchen table. He at once offered to do without the lunch if she would give him the cabbage, stating that he never liked anything as well as raw cabbage, and he got it.

Eight Initiated.

Calhoun lodge, number 41, of National association of stationary engineers, met last night and initiated eight new members into the mysteries of the order. Ten applications for membership were received and acted upon. The order bids fair to meet with great success, judging from the increased membership. The result is highly encouraging to the promulgators of the movement.

Prosecuting Attorney Here.

Prosecuting Attorney Speaker was at the Thompson House today, and was in conference with Reverend Whitehead and Detective Huckle on business connected with law and order of this city, and he is also gathering evidence to be used in the case of the commissioners versus the street railway tomorrow at Lisbon.

HEAVY DAMAGE SUITS

Charles McKenna Asks the Street Railway for $25,000.

THE ACCIDENT OCCURRED IN 1891

The Case is Attracting Much Attention in Lisbon, East Liverpool and the Surrounding Country—Prominent Legal Talent Will be Arrayed Against Each Other—P. M. Smith Wants $2,000.

The $25,000 damage suit of Charles McKenna, of East Liverpool, against the East Liverpool and Wellsville Street Railway company, which has been pending, was put on trial this morning, with F. E. Grosshans and P. M. Smith for the prosecution, and Attorneys Taylor and Clark, of Lisbon, Judge Blandin, of Cleveland, and Attorney H. R. Hill, of East Liverpool, for the defense.

Charles McKenna, the prosecuting witness, told the story of the accident as follows: "I was on the Horn switch on the 5th of November, 1891." He here showed the injured foot to the jury. "I am unable to walk right as yet, and am lamed for life. I worked at the glass house in East Liverpool and live near the trestle. About 4 o'clock in the afternoon of Nov. 5, 1891, I was crossing the trestle, and when not about 25 or 30 feet upon the same, the accident occurred. It was the first time I had ever been upon the trestle; as it had been built but a short time, the cars were not running. When I was about 35 feet from the west end, I saw a sort of a truck car approaching, at a rapid rate of speed, and when about eight or 10 feet from me, it struck a plank that was lying on the side of the track and left the track. I cannot say whether anyone was on the car or not. When the car struck the plank, upon leaving the track, the plank struck me and knocked me quite a distance."

George Stanley—I live in East Liverpool; am employed by the street railway company. In November of 1891, at the time of this accident, we were constructing the road toward Wellsville. I was operating this car, carrying rails to be used in the construction of the trestle; the car was without brake and was entirely uncontrollable, and had once before jumped the track at the same point, which was rough and unfinished. There were eight employees with me on the car when it jumped the track. I saw the McKenna boy, and saw him fall backward on the right hand side.

John A. George—I am city engineer of East Liverpool and made the survey for the street railway company at the constructing of the road.

John McKenna—I reside at East Liverpool. My residence is close to the trestle, and I saw the same when it was being built, and my understanding then was that it was to be used as a public highway. I have used it frequently.

The case of Attorney P. M. Smith, for $2,000 damages, against the East Liverpool and Wellsville street railway company, was called in court yesterday afternoon and this morning, and will be concluded after the hearing of the McKenna damage suit, which was called, owing to the presence of the witnesses. The action of P. M. Smith was brought to receive damages for injuries done by the street railway company in 1891, when constructing their road, to a 120 acre tract of land in Liverpool township, said 120 acre tract being the property of P. M. Smith. The railway was built by the defendants, it is claimed, without the permission or authority of the plaintiff, and that when the road was constructed, the land was left in such a condition as to cause it to crumble and wash away. A. G. Smith and W. G. Wells are prosecuting the case, while R. W. Taylor, Judge Blandin and Colonel Hill represent the street railway company.

Seventh assignment: Monday, Nov. 25—Ohio versus John S. Conkle, two cases.

Tuesday, Nov. 26—Ohio versus James D. Hickey; Ohio versus Oliver Cross; Ohio versus Frank Earle.

Nov. 27—Ohio versus Homer Crawford; Ohio versus Lewis Smith; Ohio versus Isaac Levi.

MAKING PROGRESS.

Gymnasium Classes of the Y. M. C. A. are Improving.

Owing to circumstances which he could not control, Mr. Morris, physical director of the Young Men's Christian association, had to dispense with several classes last week, but matters have taken on a different aspect since that time, and the work will be pushed with more vigor than ever. The classes have made rapid progress during the past few months and are meeting with success in the work. The plan of a thorough gymnasium course has made the association boys enthusiastic.

EAST LIVERPOOL, O., TUESDAY, NOV. 19.

For President, WILLIAM MCKINLEY, OF Ohio.

JUDGERS from the number of prominent Democrats who are hastening to say they are not candidates for the presidency, we are compelled to believe that Cleveland will have it all to himself.

ANOTHER railroad into this city would indeed be a blessing, and an electric road across the county would produce a boom that would be felt on every side. These things cost money, but they must come in time.

BUSINESS has grown better these past few months and signs of the panic are rapidly leaving the country, but the fluctuations of the iron market distinctly show that the country still fears because a Democratic president sits in Washington.

VERY little is being said these days about the resignation of Judge Billingsley and the appointment of his successor, but it can be seen at half a glance that the attorneys of this portion of the county are not asleep. Some one is evidently sawing his supply of wood for the winter.

A SPECIFIC DUTY.

Senator Sherman reflected the sentiment of almost every community in Ohio when he recently said to a newspaper:

"In answer to your question as to whether there ought to be a tariff on wool, I can say unequivocally that such a duty is vitally necessary to preserve an industry of the greatest importance. From the beginning of the government a duty on wool has been imposed, specifically for protection, and was recommended by Jefferson, Madison and Jackson. The duty ought to be specific rather than ad valorem, but either would answer the purpose."

If the Democrats had provided such a tariff, the farmers of Columbiana county would be richer today by many thousands of dollars, and every village in the county would be benefited. Every merchant having the farmer trade of his section would see the difference, and all would in some manner be benefited.

Marvelous Results

From a letter written by Rev. J. Gunderman, of Dimondale, Mich., we are permitted to make this extract: "I have no hesitation in recommending Dr. King's New Discovery, as the results were almost marvelous in the case of my wife. While I was pastor of the Baptist church at River Junction she was brought down with pneumonia, succeeding La Grippe. Terrible paroxysms of coughing would last hours with little interruption and it seemed as if she could not survive them. A friend recommended Dr. King's New Discovery; it was quick in its work and highly satisfactory in results." Trial bottles free at T. L. Pott's drug store. Regular size 60 cents and $1.

SHOEMAKER'S PLIGHT.

Holmes' Attorney Held For Subornation of Perjury.

HE IS LIKELY TO BE DISBARRED.

A Strange Story Concerning the Young Lawyer's Connection With the Multi-Murderer—Three People in Chicago Claim That Pitezel Is Alive.

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 19.—Attorney Shoemaker, senior counsel for Holmes, has been held in $1,500 bail for court on a charge of subornation of perjury. Judge Arnold stated privately that the court was contemplating disbarment proceedings, but nothing would be done in that regard until after the disposition of the charge.

The sensation developed when the application for a new trial for Holmes was argued. Mr. Shoemaker presented an affidavit from a witness purporting to be named Blanche Hannigan, who swore that she kept a cigar store on Callowhill street, near the house where Pitezel was killed, and that she knew the dead man, and that he told her he intended to commit suicide. District Attorney Graham asked that the witness be called to the stand, and Mr. Shoemaker replied that he did not know where she was.

District Attorney Graham then said: "I will produce her and show that she was employed by Mr. Shoemaker; that she was employed by his office and questioned; that she said she knew nothing about the case, and the attorney told her that was all right; and that she was induced, upon the payment of $300, to sign the affidavit, which had already been prepared. In support of this statement by Mr. Graham, Detective Geyer, being sworn, testified that during the trial he was called upon by John Schwewler, who said that Mr. Shoemaker had asked him to procure a woman who lived around Thirteenth and Callowhill or King street, who would swear to certain facts. The next day Schwewler again called and showed him the typewritten affidavit. This was before the woman had been looked for. Mr. Geyer submitted the matter to the district attorney, and on his advice, after the trial, Geyer procured the woman. He introduced her to Schwewler, who in turn, took her to Shoemaker. After several interviews with him, she signed the affidavit and received the money in two $100 bills, which she had marked with her initials for the purpose of identification. The supposed Mrs. Hannigan, who said her name was Margaret Reah, took the stand and corroborated this story in detail, producing the money.

Shoemaker muddled up things badly by trying to explain, but was shut off by the judges.

The court and district attorney united in clearing Rotan, Holmes' other attorney.

Rotan in his argument for a new trial argued that Pitezel had committed suicide, and that the commonwealth had produced no evidence to controvert that assertion.

District Attorney Graham reviewed the testimony against Holmes in detail, and urged that the case had been produced under the possibility of a reasonable doubt. The case was taken under advisement.

A strange story is whispered about Shoemaker's initial appearance in this case. A little over a year ago, it is said, he first came to Philadelphia. Whence he came no one seems to know, but a tale is told that he had been for some time in a little town in Indiana. Upon his arrival here he is said to have spoken of the receipt of a letter from Boston signed "H." It is stated that the writer desired to retain him as counsel in a case which would soon afterwards come up in Philadelphia, and enclosed a $100 note as a retaining fee. A few days afterwards Holmes was arrested in Boston, and the story of his manifold crimes came out.

Now, it is said that the little Indiana town in which Shoemaker lived was but a short distance from another town where Holmes had lived and fostered his multifarious schemes. It is even said that in Shoemaker's office has been found a map of the county in which these two towns lie, and that a line is drawn in red ink between the places, but so drawn as to avoid railroads and settlements, cutting through the bare country. This curious story is not given out officially, but with those who know of it there is an unanimity as to its details. The Holmes case was the first Shoemaker tried in Philadelphia. It is probably also the last.

DECLARE PITEZEL IS ALIVE.

Three People's Claim to Have Talked to Him in Chicago.

CHICAGO, Nov. 19.—James McNeary, conductor on car 676 of the Sixty-third street electric line, has sprung a new sensation in the Holmes case by stating that Benjamin F. Pitezel is alive, and that he recently talked with him on his car.

Mr. McNeary claims there could be no mistake, as he worked nine months for Pitezel and knows the peculiarities of his voice. According to McNeary, Pitezel boarded his car a few days previous to Holmes' trial.

Pitezel's beard had grown around the greater part of his face, so that he was completely disguised. When addressed, however, he admitted to his identity, and asked as a friend that McNeary keep silence, as he was on his way to Philadelphia, but McNeary called in Motorman Letterman, and he, too, claims that he had a conversation with Pitezel, who took a transfer for the Cottage Grove cable line.

Mr. Robert Corbett, who has been following the case for months in behalf of the Farmers' and Mechanics' National bank, Fort Worth, Tex., claims that he also has seen Pitezel, and that he came to the Holmes castle once when he (Corbett) was searching the place.

Said he: "I believe that if Holmes is not granted a new trial Pitezel will declare himself to the governor of Pennsylvania, when all other means are exhausted, and Isaac R. Hitt, Jr., and myself both have his address in Philadelphia. Minnie Williams is stopping at the same place under the name of Mrs. E. M. Gardener, while Pitezel is known as G. D. Hall."

ARABS WHIP THE TURKS.

The Sultan Badly Scared by the Assembling of the Foreign Fleets.

ADEN, Nov. 19.—The Imam of Sand, the capital city of Yemen, Arabia, at the head of 45,000 Arabs, armed with Martin-Henry rifles, has defeated the Turks in three fights. The latter are now confined to Sana which is a walled city about five and a half miles in circumference.

A London special says: It is understood in well-informed circles here that the assembling of the British and foreign fleets in Salonica bay is having a good effect upon the Turkish government, and that the sultan is making earnest efforts to put a stop to the bloodshed in Asia Minor.

A Constantinople special says: United States Minister Terrell, although granted leave of absence, refuses to leave his post, being determined to remain here until all the Americans are in safety and the authority of the sultan is once more established throughout Asia Minor.

A Beyrout special says: The news received here from the interior shows that the Druses are pillaging the villages near the springs of Jordan.

LORD DUNRAVEN'S CHARGES.

He Offers to Come to New York For an Investigation—Committee Appointed.

NEW YORK, Nov. 19.—The New York Yacht club, at a special meeting, has appointed a committee of three, consisting of J. Pierpont Morgan, Wm. C. Whitney and Geo. L. Reeves, to take any action which may seem to them proper in the matter of the charges made by Lord Dunraven.

A vigorous refutation of the Englishman's statements written by Mr. C. Oliver Iselin, head of the Defender syndicate, was read at a meeting of the yacht club; also a letter from H. Maitland Kersey, conveying an offer from Lord Dunraven to come to this country for an investigation, which was a complete surprise.

A man named Frank M. Williamson, first husband of the woman, was arrested charged with complicity in the murder.

A CHANCE FOR MINORITIES.

A Sentiment in the Assembly in Favor of Minority Representation—Persons Over 16 Eligible to Membership—The Charter Fee Reduced to $8.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 19.—The Knights of Labor assembly has been discussing the question of minority representation. At present there is no provision for minority representation, and a majority in a local or district assembly controls the entire selection of men as delegates or other business. The sentiment is for a change which will give minorities a representation, and to this end the proposition was referred back to the committee on laws for amendment, after which it is likely to be adopted.

The restriction against saloon men and barkeepers was also discussed. The laws of the order are so strict that waiters who occasionally serve drinks with meals are subject to the restriction. This will be changed in favor of waiters or others who act as barkeepers only temporarily. There is no purpose to loosen the rules of the order against saloon men who are permanently in the business, but only to liberalize it in favor of persons compelled by circumstances to engage in it temporarily.

An important resolution has been read and referred to the resolutions committee demanding that members of the United States supreme court shall be elected by popular vote. The resolution meets with general favor and is likely to be acted on affirmatively. The sentiment in the K. of L. is that the executive and judicial branches should be entirely separate, and that the right of the president to appoint supreme judges gives the executive practical control of the judiciary. The feeling is said to be due to the granting of several injunctions in strike cases by the judiciary, and also to the alleged unfavorable course of the courts on laws relating to labor, as in the decision against the income tax.

A resolution favoring the recognition of the Cuban insurgents was passed. An amendment to the constitution was passed making any person over 16 years of age eligible for membership in the order, unless he be a manufacturer or dealer in wines, liquors or beers. In addition the amendment also debars from membership lawyers, bankers, stockbrokers and gamblers.

Another amendment was passed allowing any five members in good standing in a local assembly that has elapsed, or ceased to work, to constitute a quorum for the transaction of business looking to the revival of the assembly.

The general assembly decided to reduce the quarter fee from $15 to $8, the local assembly to pay the expenses of the organizers.

TO BREAK UP A TRUST.

New York Attorney General Authorizes Action Against the Cigarette Trust.

SYRACUSE, N. Y., Nov. 19.—Attorney General Hancock has granted the application of C. A. Whelan & Co. of this city for the commencement of an action to restrain the American Tobacco company from doing business in this state and to cancel its certificate of authority.

The attorney general, in his statement, reviewed the evidence presented in the briefs that 90 per cent of the cigarettes made in the United States are the product of the American Tobacco company, and are sold under an arrangement by which the wholesale firms are called agents and allowed commissions for profits, and that if they handle goods of any other firm the company refuses to consign more goods to them. This, he thinks, is an unlawful combination.

200 INDIANS MASSACRED.

Fearful Revenge on Them Perpetrated by Colombian Soldiers.

BOGOTA, Colombia, Nov. 19.—Three weeks ago a small body of soldiers were ambushed and killed crossing the department of Cauca. General Beyer immediately sent a large force in pursuit of the Indians, who were surprised in a canon, both ends of which were held by troops, who hemmed the Indians in while others went to the top of the mountains, from which they rolled heavy rocks on the Indians, killing many, while those who tried to escape from what they supposed to be an earthquake were shot down in cold blood.

It is calculated by eye witnesses of the massacre that 200 Indians were killed, not a solitary one escaping death.

A Fierce Battle in Cuba.

HAVANA, Nov. 19.—A dispatch received here from Santa Clara says that a serious engagement has been fought at Taguasco, near Santi Spiritus, province of Santa Clara, between four columns of Spanish troops and a strong force of insurgents commanded by Maximo Gomez. No details have been received.

NO BIBLE READING.

Chicago Labor Congress Favors Books on Unionism Instead in Public Schools.

CHICAGO, Nov. 19.—Bible reading in the public schools was the subject of a short but animated controversy at the recent meeting of the Chicago Labor congress. Delegate F. C. Hoppe, secretary of the congress, introduced a resolution protesting against the recently suggested innovation on the ground that the schools should be devoted to the teaching of economic principles and things of practical life, leaving the matters of religion to the choice of the individual.

He urged instead of "select passages from the Bible" the school board should cause "choice selections from writers on trade unionism" to be read to the pupils. The resolution was adopted with little opposition.

BANDIT GARZA IN CUBA.

The Fighting Mexican Helping the Rebels Battle For Liberty.

SAN ANTONIO, Tex., Nov. 19.—Advices have been received here from Palo Blanco, Nueces county, Tex., that Mrs. Catarino Garza, the wife of the Mexican revolutionary leader who created such a disturbance on the lower Rio Grande border a few years ago, and who was reported to have been killed in Colombia, South America, several months ago while engaged in a political insurrection, has just received a letter from her husband.

Garza is very much alive, and is taking a leading part in the Cuban revolution. It is said that Garza has been promised an important office with the Cuban government if the insurgents are successful.

NEW YORK, Nov. 19.—Eight hundred members of the housewives' and bridgemen's unions have been called out on strike on buildings where the work is being done by J. B. & J. M. Cornell and Milliken Bros., two of the most prominent members of the iron league. The demands of the strikers include an increased wage and recognition of their union. A sympathetic strike may be ordered, and from 5,000 to 10,000 men are likely to be called out.

A Vote of Confidence.

PARIS, Nov. 19.—In the chamber of deputies the question of the arrest in London of Emile Arton, the associate of the late Baron Reinach in the Panama canal scandals, who disappeared in 1892, came up for discussion. The government declared his arrest was affected immediately he was discovered. The matter drifted into a discussion of the general policy of this government. This resulted in an adoption of a vote of confidence, the vote standing 421 to 52.

RICHMOND, Va., Nov. 19.—The committee on temperance and Sabbath observance of the Virginia Methodist conference has submitted a strong report in which Sunday excursions, the running of railway trains on Sunday, and all sorts of pleasure on that day were deprecated, and a vigorous protest was entered against the Sunday newspaper, which was described as a thing to make mental and moral dyspepsia.

EAST LIVERPOOL, O., TUESDAY, NOV. 19.

For President,
WILLIAM MCKINLEY,
OF Ohio.

JUDGING from the number of prominent Democrats who are hastening to say they are not candidates for the presidency, we are compelled to believe that Cleveland will have it all to himself.

ANOTHER railroad into this city would indeed be a blessing, and an electric road across the county would produce a boom that would be felt on every side. These things cost money, but they must come in time.

BUSINESS has grown better these past few months and signs of the panic are rapidly leaving the country, but the fluctuations of the iron market distinctly show that the country still fears because a Democratic president sits in Washington.

VERY little is being said these days about the resignation of Judge Billingsley and the appointment of his successor, but it can be seen at half a glance that the attorneys of this portion of the county are not asleep.
Some one is evidently saving his supply of wood for the winter.

A SPECIFIC DUTY.

Senator Sherman reflected the sentiment of almost every community in Ohio when he recently said to a newspaper:

"In answer to your question as to whether there ought to be a tariff on wool, I can say unequivocally that such a duty is vitally necessary to preserve an industry of the greatest importance. From the beginning of the government a duty on wool has been imposed, specifically for protection, and was recommended by Jefferson, Madison and Jackson. The duty ought to be specific rather than ad valorem, but either would answer the purpose."

If the Democrats had provided such a tariff, the farmers of Columbiana county would be richer today by many thousands of dollars, and every village in the county would be benefited.
Every merchant having the farmer trade of his section would see the difference, and all would in some manner be benefited.

Marvelous Results

From a letter written by Rev. J.
Gunderman, of Dimondale, Mich., we are permitted to make this extract:
"I have no hesitation in recommending Dr. King's New Discovery, as the results were almost marvelous in the case of my wife. While I was pastor of the Baptist church at River Junction she was brought down with pneumonia succeeding La Grippe.
Terrible paroxysms of coughing would last hours with little interruption and it seemed as if she could not survive them. A friend recommended Dr. King's New Discovery. It was quick in its work and highly satisfactory in results." Trial bottles free at T. L. Pott's drug store. Regular size 50 cents and $1.

SHOEMAKER'S PLIGHT.

Holmes' Attorney Held For Subornation of Perjury.

HE IS LIKELY TO BE DISBARRED.

A Strange Story Concerning the Young Lawyer's Connection With the Multi-Murderer—Three People in Chicago Claim That Pitezel Is Alive.

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 19.—Attorney Shoemaker, senior counsel for Holmes, has been held in $1,500 bail for court on a charge of subornation of perjury.
Judge Arnold stated privately that the court was contemplating disbarment proceedings, but nothing would be done in that regard until after the disposition of the charge.

The sensation developed when the application for a new trial for Holmes was argued. Mr. Shoemaker presented an affidavit from a witness purporting to be named Blanche Hannigan, who swore that she kept a cigar store on Callowhill street, near the house where Pitezel was killed, and that she knew the dead man, and that he told her he intended to commit suicide. District Attorney Graham asked that the witness be called to the stand, and Mr.
Shoemaker replied that he did not know where she was.

District Attorney Graham then said:
"I will produce her and show that she was employed by Mr. Shoemaker; that she was taken to his office and (questioned); that she said she knew nothing about the case, and the attorney told her that was all right; and that she was induced, upon the payment of her of $20, to sign the affidavit, which had already been prepared. In support of this statement by Mr. Graham, Detective Geyer, being sworn, testified that during the trial he was called upon by John Schwechler, who said that Mr.
Shoemaker had asked him to procure a woman who lived around Thirteenth and Callowhill or King street, who would swear to certain facts. The next day Schwechler again called and showed him the typewritten affidavit. This was before the woman had been looked for. Mr. Geyer submitted the matter to the district attorney, and on his advice, after the trial, Geyer procured the woman. He introduced her to Schwechler, who in turn, took her to Shoemaker. After several interviews with him, she signed the affidavit and received the money in two $10 bills, which she had marked with her initials for the purpose of identification. The supposed Mrs. Hannigan, who said her name was Margaret Reah, took the stand and corroborated this story in detail, producing the money.

Shoemaker muddled up things badly by trying to explain, but was shut off by the judges.

The court and district attorney united in clearing Rotan, Holmes' other attorney.

Rotan in his argument for a new trial argued that Pitezel had committed suicide, and that the commonwealth had produced no evidence to controvert that assertion.

District Attorney Graham reviewed the testimony against Holmes in detail, and urged that the case had been proved beyond the possibility of a reasonable doubt. The case was taken under advisement.

A strange story is whispered about Shoemaker's initial appearance in this case. A little over a year ago, it is said, he first came to Philadelphia.
Whence he came no one seems to know, but a tale is told that he had been for some time in a little town in Indiana.
Upon his arrival here he is said to have spoken of the receipt of a letter from Boston signed "H." It is stated that the writer desired to retain him as counsel in a case which would soon afterwards come up in Philadelphia, and enclosed a $100 note as a retaining fee. A few days afterwards Holmes was arrested in Boston, and the story of his manifold crimes came out.

Now, it is said that the little Indiana town in which Shoemaker lived was but a short distance from another town where Holmes had lived and fostered his multifarious schemes. It is even said that in Shoemaker's office has been found a map of the county in which these two towns lie, and that a line is drawn in red ink between the places, but so drawn as to avoid railroads and settlements, cutting through the bare country. This curious story is not given out officially, but with those who know of it there is an unanimity as to its details. The Holmes case was the first Shoemaker tried in Philadelphia.
It is probably also the last.

DECLARE PITEZEL IS ALIVE.

Three People Claim to Have Talked to Him in Chicago.

CHICAGO, Nov. 19.—James McNeary, conductor on car 676 of the Sixty-third street electric line, has sprung a new sensation in the Holmes case by stating that Benjamin F. Pitezel is alive, and that he recently talked with him on his car.

Mr. McNeary claims there could be no mistake, as he worked nine months for Pitezel and knows the peculiarities of his voice. According to McNeary, Pitezel boarded his car a few days previous to Holmes' trial.

Pitezel's beard had grown around the greater part of his face, so that he was completely disguised. When addressed, however, he admitted to his identity, and asked as a friend that McNeary keep silence, as he was on his way to Philadelphia, but McNeary called in Motorman Letterman, and he, too, claims that he had a conversation with Pitezel, who took a transfer for the Cottage Grove cable line.

Mr. Robert Corbett, who has been following the case for months in behalf of the Farmers' and Mechanics' National bank, Fort Worth, Tex., claims that he also has seen Pitezel, and that he came to the Holmes castle once when he (Corbett) was searching the place.

Said he: "I believe that if Holmes is not granted a new trial Pitezel will declare himself to the governor of Pennsylvania, when all other means are exhausted, and Isaac R. Hitt, Jr., and myself both have his address in Philadelphia. Minnie Williams is stopping at the same place under the name of Mrs. E. M. Gardener, while Pitezel is known as G. D. Hall."

ARABS WHIP THE TURKS.

The Sultan Badly Scared by the Assembling of the Foreign Fleets.

ADEN, Nov. 19.—The Imam of Sand, the capital city of Yemen, Arabia, at the head of 45,000 Arabs, armed with Martin-Henry rifles, has defeated the Turks in three fights. The latter are now confined to Sana which is a walled city about five and a half miles in circumference.

A London special says: It is understood in well-informed circles here that the assembling of the British and foreign fleets in Salonicia bay is having a good effect upon the Turkish government, and that the sultan is making earnest efforts to put a stop to the bloodshed in Asia Minor.

A Constantinople special says: The United States Minister Terrell, although granted leave of absence, refuses to leave his post, being determined to remain here until all the Americans are in safety and the authority of the sultan is once more established throughout Asia Minor.

A Beyrout special says: The news received here from the interior shows that the Druses are pillaging the villages near the springs of Jordan.

LORD DUNRAVEN'S CHARGES.

He Offers to Come to New York For an Investigation—Committee Appointed.

NEW YORK, Nov. 19.—The New York Yacht club, at a special meeting, has appointed a committee of three, consisting of J. Pierpont Morgan, Wm. C.
Whitney and Geo. L. Reeves, to take any action which may seem to them proper in the matter of the charges made by Lord Dunraven.

A vigorous refutation of the English-man's statements written by Mr. C.
Oliver Eselin, head of the Defender syndicate, was read at a meeting of the yacht club; also a letter from H. Maitland Kersey, conveying an offer from Lord Dunraven to come to this country for an investigation, which was a complete surprise.

Wife and Son Accused of Murder.

WICHITA, Kan., Nov. 19.—Henry H.
Leonard, aged 62 years, has been murdered, and Mrs. Leonard, his second wife, and her son Orville are under arrest charged with the crime. Mrs.
Leonard and her son were found mopping up the blood, which was spattered over the floor and furniture. Several months ago Leonard secured a divorce from his first wife and married Mrs.
Williamson, the woman now in jail.

A man named Frank M. Williamson, first husband of the woman, was arrested charged with complicity in the murder.

Accused of Armor Fraud.

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 19.—Frederick Baldt, manager, and James T. Ander-

Ritter, assistant secretary and receiving and paying teller of the Tacony of this city, is missing. An investigation showed that there has apparently been no misappropriation of the company's funds.

Will Use American Plate.

ST. PETERSBURG, Nov. 19.—The Beth-cepted, and the American firms have been awarded three-quarters of the entire order.

An Indian Reservation Opened.

SPOKANE, Wash., Nov. 19.—The Nez Perces Indian reservation, Iowa, was opened yesterday. Not over 3,000 loca-section.

An Insane Farmer's Act.

WHEELING, Nov. 19.—William Cooper, the burning building, but was prevented from doing so by his son.

Earthquake Shock In Colorado.

COTOPAXI, Col., Nov. 19.—A distinct

ticles thrown down.

U. S. JUDGES BY VOTE.

K. of L. Don't Want the President to Appoint Them.

A CHANCE FOR MINORITIES.

A Sentiment In the Assembly In Favor of Minority Representation—Persons Over 16 Eligible to Membership—The Charter Fee Reduced to $5.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 19.—The Knights of Labor assembly has been discussing the question of minority representation.
At present there is no provision for minority representation, and a majority in a local or district assembly controls the entire selection of men as delegates or other business. The sentiment is for a change which will give minorities a representation, and to this end the proposition was referred back to the committee on laws for amendment, after which it is likely to be adopted.

The restriction against saloon men and barkeepers was also discussed. The laws of the order are so strict that waiters who occasionally serve drinks with meals are subject to the restriction. This will be changed in favor of waiters or others who act as barkeepers only temporarily. There is no purpose to loosen the rules of the order against saloon men who are permanently in the business, but only to liberalize it in favor of persons compelled by circumstances to engage in it temporarily.

An important resolution has been read and referred to the resolutions committee demanding that members of the United States supreme court shall be elected by popular vote. The resolution meets with general favor and is likely to be acted on affirmatively. The sentiment in the K. of L. is that the executive and judicial branches should be entirely separate, and that the right of the president to appoint supreme judges gives the executive practical control of the judiciary. The feeling is said to be due to the granting of several injunctive in strike cases by the judiciary, and also to the alleged unfavorable course of the courts on laws relating to labor, as in the decision against the income tax.

A resolution favoring the recognition of the Cuban insurgents was passed.

An amendment to the constitution was passed making any person over 16 years of age eligible for membership in the order, unless he be a manufacturer or dealer in wines, liquors or beers. In addition the amendment also debars from membership lawyers, bankers, stockbrokers and gamblers.

Another amendment was passed allowing any five members in good standing in a local assembly that has elapsed, or ceased to work, to constitute a quorum for the transaction of business looking to the revival of the assembly.

The general assembly decided to reduce the quarter fee from $15 to $5, the local assembly to pay the expenses of the organizers.

TO BREAK UP A TRUST.

New York Attorney General Authorizes Action Against the Cigarette Trust.

SYRACUSE, N. Y., Nov. 19.—Attorney General Hancock has granted the application of C. A. Whelan & Co. of this city for the commencement of an action to restrain the American Tobacco company from doing business in this state and to cancel its certificate of authority.

The attorney general, in his statement, reviewed the evidence presented in the briefs that 90 per cent of the cigarettes made in the United States are the product of the American Tobacco company, and are sold under an arrangement by which the wholesale firms are called agents and allowed commissions for profits, and that if they handle goods of any other firm the company refuses to consign more goods to them. This, he thinks, is an unlawful combination.

200 INDIANS MASSACRED.

Fearful Revenge on Them Perpetrated by Colombian Soldiers.

BOGOTA, Colombia, Nov. 19.—Three weeks ago a small body of soldiers were ambushed and killed crossing the department of Caucau. General Beyer immediately sent a large force in pursuit of the Indians, who were surprised in a canon, both ends of which were held by troops, who hemmed the Indians in while others went to the top of the mountains, from which they rolled heavy rocks on the Indians, killing many, while those who tried to escape from what they supposed to be an earthquake were shot down in cold blood.

It is calculated by eye witnesses of the massacre that 200 Indians were killed, not a solitary one escaping death.

A Fierce Battle In Cuba.

HAVANA, Nov. 19.—A dispatch received here from Santa Clara says that a serious engagement has been fought at Taguasco, near Santi Spiritus, province of Santa Clara, between four columns of Spanish troops and a strong force of insurgents commanded by Maximo Gomez. No details have been received.

Earnings of the B. and O.

NEW YORK, Nov. 19.—The report of the B. & O. Railroad company for the fiscal year ending June 30 shows: Gross, $22,817,182; increase, $314,520; operating expenses, $15,801,043; increase, $240,354; total income, $8,643,733, a decrease of $281,097; balances, $639,517; increase, $127,559.

Fate Averted His Crime.

FORT SCOTT, Kan., Nov. 19.—Dr. A.
Corey, a prominent dentist of this city, after trying to outrage his stepdaughter Cora, a beautiful girl of 17, in attempting to escape from the police fell from a second story window, alighting on his head, being instantly killed.

In Memory of Jackson.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 19.—Secretary of State Olney presided at a meeting of the bar of the United States supreme court, at which appropriate action was taken respecting the death of the late Associate Justice Howell E. Jackson of Tennessee.

NO BIBLE READING.

Chicago Labor Congress Favors Books on Unionism Instead In Public Schools.

CHICAGO, Nov. 19.—Bible reading in the public schools was the subject of a short but animated controversy at the recent meeting of the Chicago Labor congress. Delegate F. C. Hoppe, secretary of the congress, introduced a resolution protesting against the recently suggested innovation on the ground that the schools should be devoted to the teaching of economic principles and things of practical life, leaving the mat-deputies the question of the arrest in London of Emile Arton, the associate of the late Baron Reinach in the Panama canal scandals, who disappeared in 1892, came up for discussion. The government declared his arrest was affected immediately he was discovered.

The matter drifted into a discussion of the general policy of this government.
This resulted in an adoption of a vote of confidence, the vote standing 421 to 52.

CUT-OFF OUT OF FIX.

This Caused the Fearful Disaster at Cleveland.

SAFETY DEVICE USELESS 3 WEEKS.

The Street Car Company Officials Will Have to Explain Their Carelessness. Two More Bodies Recovered, Making 19 Victims—Further Search Abandoned.

CLEVELAND, Nov. 19.—It has been definitely settled that one of the safety-guards provided by the street railway company at the Central viaduct draw bridge to prevent accidents has been out of order for three weeks. It was a device of levers, so arranged that when the safety gates at the approaches to the draw were closed the current would be shut off for a distance of 500 feet on each side of the river. The wires remained dead until the draw bridge was closed and the gates were swung back to the sides of the roadway. With the cut-off in working order a motorman could not run his car into the river, and the absence of power would be an infallible warning of danger. Why the cut-off has been allowed to remain out of order is unexplained by the street car company as yet.

Rogers, the motorman who jumped from the car and thus saved his life, has been bound over without bail in police court for two weeks, during which a thorough investigation will be made into the affair.

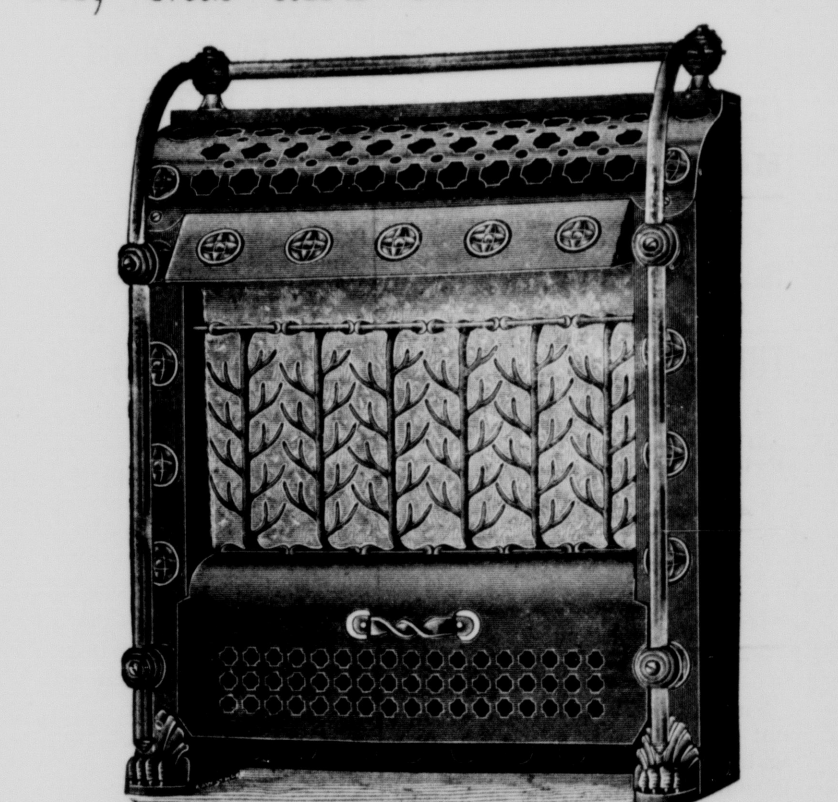

The coroner's inquest began this morning. The bodies of Miss Martha Sauerheimer and Matthew Callinan, the last of the 19 victims, have been recovered, and the search has now ceased.

The recital of his experience by Patrick Looney, the sole survivor of the accident, leads to the belief that all the victims were unconscious when they struck the water.

"The first premonition I had that anything was wrong," said Looney, "was when the car tipped forward."

Like a flash it came to me that the draw was open and we were going in to the river. I know I made a dash for the rear door. I remember that well. I have a dim remembrance of getting hold of the handle of the rear door, that is all.

It has developed that C. A. Ferguson, one of the men who jumped from the wrecked street car as it was plunging into the open draw, has not been seen since. Ferguson exclaimed "My wife is in that car," and that he wrung his hands and wept for some time. Ferguson was a contractor living at Parma, near the city, and the fact that he has not been seen since leads to the belief that his wife was in the car and that he may have committed suicide.

TWO IMPORTANT DECISIONS.

The U. S. Supreme Court Decides One For and Against the Western Union.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 19.—The United States supreme court, in an opinion by Justice Harlan, holds in effect that the Union Pacific Railroad company had no right to make a lease practically giving the Western Union Telegraph company an exclusive right to maintain telegraph lines along the route of the railroad company. The decision rendered holds that the United States has a right to maintain a bill in equity to compel the Union Pacific to maintain its own lines of telegraph along its railroad routes, and that the obligation imposed on the railroad company to do this was as strong as its obligation to maintain the railroad tracks.

In the case of the United States against the same two corporations, to recover moneys paid for government messages to the Western Union since 1881, sent over the lines along the Union Pacific right of way, the court affirmed the judgment below in favor of the corporations. The court said that if it could be shown which messages were sent over the Union Pacific lines on the north of the railroad track and which over the W. U. lines on the south it would hold that reimbursement should be made for the former messages, but since the evidence was to the effect that it was impossible to distinguish them, it would rule against the United States claims.

FIVE NEGROES HUNG.

Others Terribly Abused by Railroad Contractors in Mexico.

SAN ANTONIO, Tex., Nov. 19.—A special dispatch from Port Barrios, Mexico, says five negroes have been found hanging by guards, six miles from town. They were recognized as being some of the negroes lately arrived here to work on the railroad being constructed, but who became dissatisfied and fled. An investigation was made, but like all investigations in this country, nothing resulted except that it was learned that the negroes came from Louisiana.

It was given out that they must have been murdered by robbers, but it is believed that they were pursued by the contractors and troops and killed so as not to allow them to escape. The life of the American negroes at work here is terrible. Many have been beaten to death.

SMITH & PHILLIPS.

Their Exhibition at the Exposition Very Handsome.

Lovers of instrumental music and musical instruments were irresistibly attracted to the exhibit made by Smith & Phillips, the well known dealers. The Haines piano won many favorable comments, and one of these superb instruments was sold to a delighted purchaser since it has been placed in the risk on this occasion.
The famous Lehr & Co. organ also came in for a warm share of favorable criticism, while the Symphony organ, under the skillful manipulation of Professor Swan, had numerous admirers. The Regina music box is a great success in its line, appealing to the patriotism of our citizens, as it is the first music box manufactured in the United States. Smith & Phillips will supply you with anything in the line of musical instruments manufactured, from the finest pianos in the land to the boy's delight, the old-fashioned Jewsharp, and at prices which will be sure to please patrons.
Don't forget the headquarters, corner of Fourth and Washington streets.

MUSIC RECITAL.

Miss Alva Jackman's Pupil's Delight
Parents and Friends.

The pupils of Miss Alva Jackman last night entertained their parents and friends with a music recital at the residence of Wilson Smith. The creditable manner in which the different selections were rendered evinced much painstaking work on the part of both instructor and pupils. Much praise is due the young ladies, since to most of them it was their first public performance.
The following numbers were presented.

J. R. WARNER.

Did You Notice the Crowd About His Fine Exhibit?

The handsome alligator, mounted on top of the revolving shoe display, seems satisfied that he can take unfold which will interest every shoe buyer in East Liverpool and the surrounding country, as he gazes down on the very perfection of the shoe manufacturer's art, in designs for ladies, gentlemen, boys and girls, while even the footwear of the darling babies is on exhibition. The Twentieth Century shoes and the elegant footwear for lady bicyclists was the source of many exclamations of delight from lovely lips, and the universal verdict is that J. R. Warner, in the Diamond, leads the shoe trade in this busy city of East Liverpool.
Look at the display at the rink tonight.

Kindergarten.

Take your ladies to the rooms of the Young Men's Christian association tomorrow afternoon at 4 o'clock and listen to Miss McCullough give a wondrous description of the kindergarten work in Pittsburg, and the great good it has accomplished. Mrs. Van Wagoner will organize the association. In this city, and it is hoped that this is the beginning of good work in this line in East Liverpool.

R. L. EDMONSTON'S

Exhibit of Crayons and Elegant Cabinets.

There were many very attractive features at the exposition last night, but one of the most popular places of resort was the booth of R. L.
Edmonston, where were placed on exhibition some of the finest finished crayons ever seen in our city, while the cabinets are genuine gems of the art photographic. The cabinet of Colonel Watson is pronounced simply perfect. The argente print, direct from the negative, also attracted much favorable comment. Edmonston's gallery, in the J. C. Thompson building, Diamond, employs four artists, busily at work, and you will do well to leave your orders at once for holiday pictures.

Successful Meeting.

There was a grandly successful meeting at the First M. E. church last night, under the auspices of the Epworth league. Meeting tonight, Miss Griggs, leader.

GEORGE C. MURPHY'S

Exhibition at the Exposition at the Fifth Street Rink.

The space devoted to the exhibit of clothing by this popular clothier and gents' furnisher, was a decided source of attraction to the immense crowd in attendance last night at the rink. The goods were displayed in a nice and artistic manner, and the quality and style received much favorable consideration. Geo. C. Murphy has built up an immense trade in his specialties, and the goods on exhibition at the exposition are fair specimens of the splendid stock to be found at his elegant headquarters in the Diamond.

J. M. MCKINNEY.

Watches, Clocks, Silverware and Madagascar Diamonds.

The attention of the lady and gentleman visitors at the rink last night could not fail in being attracted to Jeweler McKinney's superb exhibit of watches, clocks and silverware, while the Madagascar diamonds were the subject of much favorable comment.
These diamonds are not mere glass, but belong to the family of brilliants, and are very handsome and much to-be desired as ornaments. There is strong demand for them, and you should not fail to inspect the beauties by calling upon Mr. McKinney. In the Diamond. Aside from this, his assortment of goods suitable for holiday presents will put in the shade all competitors.

See the Madagascar diamonds on display at the rink, and in our show window on and after Thursday, Nov. 21. They are something new, and admitted by all diamond experts to be the finest imitation diamond ever produced.
For sale only by

J. M. MCKINNEY, Jeweler,
In the Diamond.

Justice Court.

A. B. Allen appeared before Squire Morley this morning and had a writ of replevin issued on goods held by Mrs. Maggie Entrel, which he claims are his, and are refused him. Constable Lyon attached the goods and the case will be heard on Nov. 21.

W. Stewart in the same court sued John Rinehart for $39.35, amount due on an insurance policy. The case will also be heard on Nov. 21.

S. G. HARD.

His Display of Furniture at the Exposition a Beauty.

Hard's furniture establishment is known not only in East Liverpool, but all over this section, and the display of goods he is making at the Exposition is exceptionally fine. White iron bedsteads, with brass mountings, bed made up ready for occupancy, neat cane canopy, matting and handsome rugs on the floor, art squares and rope portieres, handsome corduroy couch, easy chairs and rockers, card stand, with fine pictures on the walls, make up an apartment or display which is indeed worth looking at. And Hard's superb establishment, Fifth street, is headquarters for not only the finest goods manufactured, but for goods of every description in the furniture line.

A Quarrel.

An exciting scene was witnessed on Second street last night. Two young ladies became involved in a quarrel over the question of who was entitled to a certain young man. The situation waxed warm, and at one stage it looked as if a hair pulling match was inevitable. Finally friends succeeded in quieting their turbulent spirits, and they each dispersed to their respective homes.

J. B. ROWE.

Did You Stop at His Display of Good Things?

Jack Rowe, the people's baker, was strictly in the swim last night at the Exposition. His exhibit of fruit cake, angel food and pies and cakes of every description, is simply exquisite, and only needs to be seen to be fully appreciated. It is the universal verdict of those who have been in the rink Saturday and last night that no such exhibition of baker's goods was ever before shown in East Liverpool. Mr.
Rowe's headquarters are at 122 Sixth and 160 Washington streets, and orders left there will receive prompt attention.

A Favorite.

Miss Carrie Lamont made a decided hit last night in "Jolly Old Chums," and was encored a number of times.
An admirer presented her with a handsome basket of flowers. During her brief stay here she was the guest of Mrs. Charles Surles, of Third street.

J. M. BERKEY,

Supt. Schools, Somerset Co., Pa.
Berlin, Pa., Dec. 31, 1894.
H. H. Emmett's lecture on the North American Indian is strong and takes high rank as to matter, method of presentation and entertaining qualities.
—At Grand Opera House,
Thursday, Nov. 21.

A Dog Killed.

A street car ran over a dog and killed it yesterday afternoon near Thompson's pottery. The motorman did not see the animal until it was too late to stop the car. The dog was almost cut in two.

W. A. McGuire, a well known citizen of McKay, O., is of the opinion that there is nothing as good for children troubled with colds or croup as Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. He has used it in his family for several years with the best results and always keeps a bottle of it in the house. After having a gripe he was himself troubled with a severe cough. He used other remedies without benefit and then concluded to try the children's medicine and to his delight it soon effected a permanent cure.
Twenty-five and 50 cent bottles for sale by A. H. Bulger, druggist.

98%

of all cases of consumption can, if taken in the earlier stages of the disease, be cured.
This may seem like a bold assertion to those familiar only with the means generally in use for its treatment, as many cod-liver oil and its filthy emulsions, extract of malt, whiskey, different preparations of hypophosphites and such like palliatives.
Although by many believed to be incurable, there is the evidence of hundreds of living witnesses to the fact that, in all its earlier stages, consumption is a curable disease. Not every case, but a large percentage of cases, and we believe, fully 98 per cent, are cured by Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery, even after the disease has progressed so far as to induce repeated bleedings from the lungs, severe lingering cough with copious expectoration (including tubercular matter), great loss of flesh and extreme emaciation and weakness.

Do you doubt that hundreds of such cases reported to us as cured by "Golden Medical Discovery" were genuine cases of that dread and fatal disease? You need not take our word for it. They have, in nearly every instance, been so pronounced by the best and most experienced home physicians, who have no interest whatever in misrepresenting them, and who were often strongly prejudiced and advised against a trial of "Golden Medical Discovery," but who have been forced to confess that it surpasses, in curative power over this fatal malady, all other medicines with which they are acquainted. Nasty cod-liver oil and its filthy "emulsions" and mixtures, had been tried, nearly all these cases and had either utterly failed to benefit, or had only seemed to benefit a little for a short time. Extract of malt, whiskey, and various preparations of the hypophosphites had also been faithfully tried in vain.
The photographs of a large number of those cured of consumption, bronchitis, lingering coughs, asthma, chronic nasal catarrh and kindred maladies, have been skillfully reproduced in a book of 160 pages which will be mailed to you, on receipt of address and six cents in stamps.
You can then write those cured and learn their experience.

PERSONAL MENTION.

—John Simms is a Beaver visitor today.

—Will Harker went to Pittsburg this morning.

—Reverend Birnbach, of Fairview, is in town today.

—Ed Knowles returned this morning from near London, after an 18 days' hunting trip there.

—Harry Knoblock, of the Dresden, returned from an eastern trip in the interest of the pottery this morning.

Lots of Game.

Frank Little, George Harvey and Henry Woodard, went hunting yesterday, over in the wilds of West Virginia. They succeeded in bagging a goodly number of rabbits, squirrels and pheasants.

Good health is a precious boon and those who enjoy it should preserve it at whatever cost. Libby's Phosphatic Beef, Iron and Wine is the great health preserving remedy, never failing tonic, strength and tissue producer and builder up of weak and debilitated women. Sold by first class druggists. Be sure you get Libby's.
Don't be persuaded by any dealer to take something he will tell you is just as good—his object is to sell you some poor decoction upon which his profits are large. Go to some first class dealer or send $1 to us, Libby, McNeill & Libby, Union Stock Yards, Chicago, or send to Alvin H. Bulger, leading druggist, East Liverpool, O.

Emmett at Grand, Nov. 21.

Drunk.

Dan Gourley was drunk in Dew Drop alley this afternoon and he was given a ride in the patrol to the lockup.

Electric Bitters.

Electric Bitters is a medicine suited for any season, but perhaps more generally needed, when the languid exhausted feeling prevails, when the liver is torpid and sluggish and the need of a tonic and alterative is felt.
A prompt use of this medicine has often averted long and perhaps fatal bilious fevers. No medicine will act more surely in counteracting and freeing the system from the malarial poison. Headache, indigestion, constipation, dizziness yield to Electric Bitters. Fifty cents and $1 per bottle at T. L. Potts drug store.

See Emmett, Thursday night.

Broke His Arm.

Martin Leatherow, of East End, fell over the culvert on Mulberry street yesterday afternoon and broke his arm.

For a pain in the side or chest there is nothing so good as a piece of flannel dampened with Chamberlain's Pain Balm and bound on over the seat of pain. It affords prompt and permanent relief and if used in time will often prevent a cold from resulting in pneumonia. The same treatment is a sure cure for lam back. For sale by A. H. Bulger, druggist.

Emmett, the Orator.

Drunk Again.

Thomas McClee was arrested on Market street this afternoon by Officer Meador. He was gloriously drunk.

SMALL OHIO HAPPENINGS.

Adam Bittner, a thrifty German farmer living near Yellow Springs, hanged himself with a hitching strap in his barn.

A general store at New Carlisle was entered by burglars who secured, among other things, $50 in cash and a deposit check for $35.

Fred Brown, colored, of Toledo, was knocked out by Frank Garrard of Chicago when they came together in the seventh round at the Olympic club rooms, Toledo.

George Dorn, an inmate of the Dayton soldier's home, who has been out on a furlough for a number of weeks, dropped dead in a boarding house from heart disease.

Friends of A. M. Rice of Kenton think he would make an excellent warden of the state penitentiary. John L. Clark is said to be willing to accept a place under Bushnell.

SMITH & PHILLIPS.

Their Exhibition at the Exposition Very Handsome.

Lovers of instrumental music and musical instruments were irresistibly attracted to the exhibit made by Smith & Phillips, the well known dealers. The Haines piano won many favorable comments, and one of these superb instruments was sold to a delighted purchaser since it has been placed in the risk on this occasion. The famous Lehr & Co. organ also came in for a warm share of favorable criticism, while the Symphony organ, under the skillful manipulation of Professor Swan, had numerous admirers. The Regina music box is a great success in its line, appealing to the patriotism of our citizens, as it is the first music box manufactured in the United States. Smith & Phillips will supply you with anything in the line of musical instruments manufactured, from the finest pianos in the land to the boy's delight, the old-fashioned Jewsharp, and at prices which will be sure to please patrons. Don't forget the headquarters, corner of Fourth and Washington streets.

MUSIC RECITAL.

Miss Alva Jackson's Pupil's Delight Parents and Friends.

The pupils of Miss Alva Jackson last night entertained their parents and friends with a music recital at the residence of Wilson Smith. The creditable manner in which the different selections were rendered evinced much painstaking work on the part of both instructor and pupils. Much praise is due the young ladies, since to most of them it was their first public performance. The following numbers were presented. Sonatina..... Miss Alva Jackson First Violets..... Miss Maude Carr Sonatina..... Miss Anna Perry Duet..... Misses Taylor and Jackson Vocal trio..... Misses Rudy and Beardmore and Mrs. Clements. Sonatina..... Miss Alice Devon Sonatina..... ### J. R. WARNER.

Did You Notice the Crowd About His Fine Exhibit?

The handsome alligator, mounted on top of the revolving shoe display, seems satisfied that he can atale unfold which will interest every shoe buyer in East Liverpool and the surrounding country, as he gazes down on the very perfection of the shoe manufacturer's art, in designs for ladies, gentlemen, boys and girls, while even the footwear of the darling babies is on exhibition. The Twentieth Century shoes and the elegant footwear for lady bicyclists was the source of many exclamations of delight from lovely lips, and the universal verdict is that J. R. Warner, in the Diamond, leads the shoe trade in this busy city of East Liverpool. Look at the display at the rink tonight.

Kindergarten.

Take your ladies to the rooms of the Young Men's Christian association tomorrow afternoon at 4 o'clock and listen to Miss McCullough give a wondrous description of the kindergarten work in Pittsburgh, and the great good it has accomplished. Mrs. Van Waggoner will organize the association in this city, and it is hoped that this is the beginning of good work in this line in East Liverpool.

Exhibit of Crayons and Elegant Cabinets.

There were many very attractive features at the exposition last night, but one of the most popular places of resort was the booth of R. L. Edmonston, where were placed on exhibition some of the finest finished crayons ever seen in our city, while the cabinets are genuine gems of the art photographic. The cabinet of Colonel Watson is pronounced simply perfect. The argentic print, direct from the negative, also attracted much favorable comment. Edmonston's gallery, in the J. C. Thompson building, Diamond, employs four artists, busily at work, and you will do well to leave your orders at once for holiday pictures.

Successful Meeting.

There was a grandly successful meeting at the First M. E. church last night, under the auspices of the Epworth league. Meeting tonight, Miss Griggs, leader.

Exhibition at the Exposition at the Fifth Street Rink.

The space devoted to the exhibit of clothing by this popular clothier and gents' furnisher, was a decided source of attraction to the immense crowd in attendance last night at the rink. The goods were displayed in a nice and artistic manner, and the quality and styles received much favorable consideration. Geo. C. Murphy has built up an immense trade in his specialties, and the goods on exhibition at the exposition are fair specimens of the splendid stock to be found at his elegant headquarters in the Diamond.

J. M. McKINNEY.

Watches, Clocks, Silverware and Madagascars Diamonds.

The attention of the lady and gentleman visitors at the rink last night could not fail in being attracted to Jeweler McKinney's superb exhibit of watches, clocks and silverware, while the Madagascar diamonds were the subject of much favorable comment. These diamonds are not mere glass, but belong to the family of brilliants, and are very handsome and much-to-be-desired as ornaments. There is strong demand for them, and you should not fail to inspect the beauties by calling upon Mr. McKinney, in the Diamond. Aside from this, his assortment of goods suitable for holiday presents will put in the shade all competitors.

See the Madagascar diamonds on display at the rink, and in our show window on and after Thursday, Nov. 21. They are something new, and admitted by all diamond experts to be the finest imitation diamond ever produced. For sale only by

J. M. McKINNEY, Jeweler,
In the Diamond.

Justice Court.

A. B. Allen appeared before Squire Morley this morning and had a writ of replevin issued on goods held by Mrs. Magie Entrel, which he claims are his, and are refused him. Constable Lyon attached the goods and the case will be heard on Nov. 21.

W. Stewart in the same court sued John Rinehart for $39.35, amount due on an insurance policy. The case will also be heard on Nov. 21.

S. G. HARD.

His Display of Furniture at the Exposition a Beauty.

Hard's furniture establishment is known not only in East Liverpool, but all over this section, and the display of goods he is making at the Exposition is exceptionally fine. White iron bedsteads, with brass mountings, bed made up ready for occupancy, neat lace canopy, matting and handsome rugs on the floor, art squares and rope portieres, handsome corduroy couch, easy chairs and rockers, card stand, with fine pictures on the walls, make up an apartment or display which is indeed worth looking at. And Hard's superb establishment, Fifth street, is headquarters for not only the finest goods manufactured, but for goods of every description in the furniture line.

A Quarrel.

An exciting scene was witnessed on Second street last night. Two young ladies became involved in a quarrel over the question of who was entitled to a certain young man. The situation waxed warm, and at one stage it looked as if a hair pulling match was inevitable. Finally friends succeeded in quieting their turbulent spirits, and they each dispersed to their respective homes.

J. B. ROWE.

Did You Stop at His Display of Good Things?

Jack Rowe, the people's baker, was strictly in the swim last night at the Exposition. His exhibit of fruit cake, angel food and pies and cakes of every description, is simply exquisite, and only needs to be seen to be fully appreciated. It is the universal verdict of those who have been in the rink Saturday and last night that no such exhibition of baker's goods was ever before shown in East Liverpool. Mr. Rowe's headquarters are at 122 Sixth and 160 Washington streets, and orders left there will receive prompt attention.

A Favorite.

Miss Carrie Lamont made a decided hit last night in "Jolly Old Chums," and was encored a number of times. An admirer presented her with a handsome basket of flowers. During her brief stay here she was the guest of Mrs. Charles Surles, of Third street.

J. M. BERKEY,

Supt. Schools, Somerset Co., Pa., Berlin, Pa., Dec. 31, 1894. H. H. Emmett's lecture on the North American Indian is strong and takes high rank as to matter, method of presentation and entertaining qualities. —At Grand Opera House, Thursday, Nov. 21.

A Dog Killed.

A street car ran over a dog and killed it yesterday afternoon near Thompson's pottery. The motorman did not see the animal until it was too late to stop the car. The dog was almost cut in two.

W. A. McGuire, a well known citizen of McKay, O., is of the opinion that there is nothing as good for children troubled with colds or croup as Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. He has used it in his family for several years with the best results and always keeps a bottle of it in the house. After having a gripe he was himself troubled with a severe cough. He used other remedies without benefit and then concluded to try the children's medicine and to his delight it soon effected a permanent cure. Twenty-five and 50 cent bottles for sale by A. H. Bulger, druggist.

Thursday night. See Emmett.

of all cases of consumption can, if taken in the earlier stages of the disease, be cured. This may seem like a bold assertion to those familiar only with the means generally in use for its treatment; as, nasty cod-liver oil and its filthy emulsions, extract of malt, whiskey, different preparations of hypophosphites and such like palliatives. Although by many believed to be incurable, the evidence of hundreds of living witnesses to the fact that, in all its earlier stages, consumption is a curable disease. Not every case, but a large percentage of cases, and we believe, fully 98 per cent, are cured by Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery, even after the disease has progressed so far as to induce repeated bleedings from the lungs, severe lingering cough with copious expectoration (including tubercular matter), great loss of flesh and extreme emaciation and weakness. Do you doubt that hundreds of such cases reported to us as cured by "Golden Medical Discovery" were genuine cases of that dread and fatal disease? You need not take our word for it. They have, in nearly every instance, been so pronounced by the best and most experienced home physicians, who have no interest whatever in misrepresenting them, and who were often strongly prejudiced and advised against a trial of "Golden Medical Discovery," but who have been forced to confess that it surpasses, in curative power over this fatal malady, all other medicines with which they are acquainted. Nasty cod-liver oil and its filthy "emulsions" and mixtures, had been tried in nearly all these cases and had either utterly failed to benefit, or had only seemed to benefit a little for a short time. Extract of malt, whiskey, and various preparations of the hypophosphites had also been faithfully tried in vain. The photographs of a large number of those cured of consumption, bronchitis, lingering coughs, asthma, chronic nasal catarrh and kindred maladies, have been skillfully reproduced in a book of 160 pages which will be mailed to you, on receipt of address and six cents in stamps. You can then write those cured and learn their experience.

Frank Little, George Harvey and Henry Woodward, went hunting yesterday, over in the wilds of West Virginia. They succeeded in bagging a goodly number of rabbits, squirrels and pheasants.

Good health is a precious boon and those who enjoy it should preserve it at whatever cost. Libby's Phosphatic Beef, Iron and Wine is the great health preserving remedy, never failing tonic, strength and tissue producer and builder up of weak and debilitated women. Sold by first class druggists. Be sure you get Libby's. Don't be persuaded by any dealer to take something he will tell you is just as good—his object is to sell you some poor deception upon which his profits are large. #### Drunk.

Dan Gourley was drunk in Dew Drop alley this afternoon and he was given a ride in the patrol to the lock-up.

Electric Bitters.

Electric Bitters is a medicine suited for any season, but perhaps more generally needed, when the languid exhausted feeling prevails, when the liver is torpid and sluggish and the need of a tonic and alterative is felt. A prompt use of this medicine has often averted long and perhaps fatal bilious fevers. No medicine will act more surely in counteracting and freeing the system from the malarial poison. Headache, indigestion, constipation, dizziness yield to Electric Bitters. Fifty cents and $1 per bottle at T. L. Potts' drug store.

Broke His Arm.

Martin Leatherow, of East End, fell over the culvert on Mulberry street yesterday afternoon and broke his arm.

For a pain in the side or chest there is nothing so good as a piece of flannel dampened with Chamberlain's Pain Balm and bound on over the seat of pain. It affords prompt and permanent relief and if used in time will often prevent a cold from resulting in pneumonia. This same treatment is a sure cure for lame back. For sale by A. H. Bulger, druggist.

Drunk Again.

Thomas McClellan was arrested on Market street this afternoon by Officer Meador. He was gloriously drunk.
